

PROPERTY FLOOD RESILIENCE SURVEY

Risk & Policy Analysts Ltd have been commissioned by the Environment Agency to undertake a study on resilience to flooding. As part of the study we have developed a short survey to collect information on behaviours and opinions on Property Flood Resilience. Property owners and occupiers (both residential and commercial) are invited to complete the survey so we can find out what they think.

The survey can be found here.